1. [redacted] has been handled by NYO as a resettlement case for some years now and probably was an asset of CIA at some time in the past, since the resettlement [redacted] currently runs an awning business and resides at Middle Island, Long Island, NY, 107 [redacted] Lane, telephone code 516 YN 6061. During a recent meeting with [redacted], [redacted] indicated that he had two points to make:

a. [redacted] had been recently visited by an old friend from Finland, a Finn [redacted] - former colonel and who is well connected even today in Finland. [redacted] does not believe much of what [redacted] stated.

2. Norman [redacted] also turned to the following statement for use in [redacted] to [redacted]:
"[redacted], who is believed to have been a personal acquaintance of [redacted], recently mentioned to a source of this Office that in [redacted]'s opinion many of [redacted]'s statements are not true and therefore suspect". The undersigned also agreed to inform [redacted] if and when this information was passed to the [redacted] so that [redacted] could warn [redacted] to expect a contact from [redacted] and would know from when the "trip" started.
